FATHER'S WAY

My father was no pessimist; he loved the things of earth—
Its cheerfulness and sunshine, its music and its mirth.
He never sighed or moped around whenever things went wrong—
I warrant me he'd croaked at fate with some defiant song;
But, being he warn't much on tune, when times looked sort of blue,
He'd whistle softly to himself this only tune he knew.

Saw mother, when she heard that tune which father whistled so
Would say, "There's something wrong today with Ephraim, I know;
He never tries to make believe he's happy that 'ere way,
But that I'm certain us can be there's somethin' wrong to pay."
And so betimes, quite natural-like, to us observant youth
There seemed suggestion in that tune of deep, pathetic truth.

When Brother William joined the war, a lot of us went down
To see the gallant soldier boys right gayly out of town,
A-comin' home, poor mother cried as if her heart would break,
And all us children, too, for hers, and not for William's sake!
But father, trudgin' on ahead, his hands behind him so,
Kept whistlin' to himself, so sort of solemn-like and low.

And when my oldest sister, Sue, was married and went West,
Seemed like it took the tuck right out of mother and the rest.
She was the sunlight in our home—why, father used to say
It wouldn't seem like home at all if Sue should go away;
But when she went, a-leavin' us all sorer and all tears,
Poor father whistled lonesome-like—and went to feed the steers.

When crops were bad, and other ills befell our homely lot,
He'd set of nights and try to act as if he minded not;
And when came death and bore away the one he worshipped so,
How vainly did his lips belie the heart benumbed with woe!
You see the telltale whistle told a mood he'd not admit,
He'd always stopped his whistlin' when he thought we noticed it.

I'd like to see that stooping form and hoary head again—
To see the honest, hearty smile that cheered his fellow-men.
Oh, could I kiss the kindly lips that spake no creature wrong,
And share the rapture of the heart that overflowed with song!
Oh, could I hear the little tune he whistled long ago,
When he did battle with the griefs he would not have us know!

1931 FOOTBALL SEASON

This season marked the introduction of a new and fast system of football at Ole Miss. The Warner System, as it is called, was brought here by Coaches Ed. Walker and Chuck Smalling, both of whom played at Leland Stanford University. Being an unusually fast brand of football, the Warner System is in direct opposition to the type Ole Miss has used heretofore. The 1931 Flood is to be commended for the mastery of themselves under these novel conditions. It can be said without hesitancy that their playing was not short of phenomenal. Especially is their showing to be approved, when one considers the lack of material on this year's squad. However, this deficiency was not the ability of the men composing the team, but merely an insufficiency in numbers. A winning team has to be reinforced by a reserve squad, strong, both in talent and numbers. Again the Red and Blue team is to be acclaimed and complimented for their splendid showing this fall.

UNION, 0; OLE MISS, 64

Union, unable to make any progress through the Ole Miss forward wall, was held scoreless, while the Red and Blue backs scored at will. Guy Turnbow and Kirk Haynes accounted for three touchdowns each. Brister crossed the goal line twice, and Colon Brown and L. A. Ross once apiece. In the game, Captain Dick Peebles received an injury which rendered him unable to play in the Alabama game. During practice the following week, Guy Turnbow, powerful Red and Blue fullback, was severely hurt by a punctured ear drum, which was to throw him out for over two weeks.

ALABAMA, 64; OLE MISS, 0

With Captain Peebles and Turnbow out of the game, Ole Miss was unable to halt the powerful Alabama team. The Crimson Tide, later the winner of the Rose Bowl event, completely swamped the hard-fighting Flood, permitting them to come into their territory but once. After starting his second team, Wade withdrew them immediately after one touchdown had been scored, and sent in the regulars, who scored two in quick order. It was because of a lack of substitutes, and not because of the playing ability of the Floodmen, that the result was so one-sided.

TENNESSEE, 27; OLE MISS, 0

With Dodd and Hackman working together, the Vols won a hard-fought game from Ole Miss. The Red and Blue team made eleven first downs to Tennessee's seven, but with no one to send in when the going was hard, the Flood was unable to make any of these downs end in a score. Ole Miss is beginning to realize the value and need of a strong reserve. It is impossible for one squad, giving all they have, to last throughout the entire game.

SEWANEE, 13; OLE MISS, 7

Taking advantage of the breaks she received, Sewanee passed to a win. Fumbles on the part of the Red and Blue men cost them their chances to count on two occasions. The Ole Miss line played excellently, both on the defensive and offensive. It was because of the inability to break up the passing attack of the Bengals that caused Ole Miss to lose a match which should have easily been theirs. Also, the passing of the Flood did not measure up to its usual standard.

CHICAGO, 0; OLE MISS, 0

This week the Flood invaded the North, and exhibited a fine brand of defensive football. There was nothing wrong with the offensive except that it seemed to halt as soon as the territory between the fifteen-yard line and the goal line was reached. It seemed that the necessary drive to carry the ball across was missing. Ole Miss made a better showing than did the Maroons. Chicago made seven first downs, while the men from the South earned ten.

VANDERBILT, 24; OLE MISS, 0

Another game in which the Red and Blue team managed to make more first downs than did their opponents, Vandy was doped to win by a much greater score, but the stiff fight put up by the Floodmen did not permit it. Aside from the spectacular runs by Mouse Leonard, the showing by Vandy was not superior in any manner to that of Ole Miss. Neither of the teams were able to use their aerial attack. Bowles, of the Ole Miss line, did some mighty spectacular work.

L. S. U., 6; OLE MISS, 0

Our hopes were to win this game. L. S. U. had been defeated by A. & M., so the Ole Miss team desired to show the Aggie squad what to expect on Thanksgiving. But, Fate did not decree that such was to be the case. The Tigers were destined to gain an unimpressive victory. This was the fifth conference game lost by Mississippi.

SOUTHWESTERN, 6; OLE MISS, 37

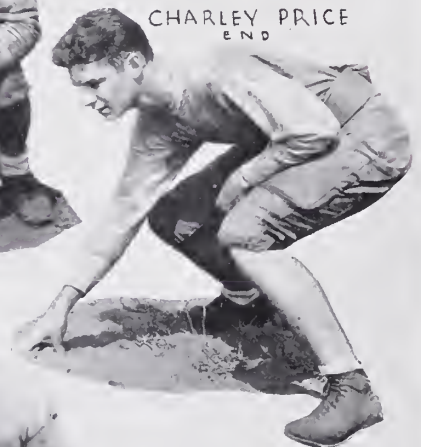

With the rain beating down on them the entire time, the Mississippians won their second game of the season. The Lynx did not let up their fight at any time during the game, but Ole Miss was going just too strong to be stopped. Long runs by Biggers, Wood, and Kyzar were features of the contest. The entire forward wall of the Flood played good football. As Southwestern had already won from A. & M., this victory was even more complete. The Walkermen have hit their stride. Watch out A. & M!

A. & M., 0; OLE MISS, 20

The Mississippi Flood completely inundated the boys of Starkville. There was too much Guy Turnbow for the Aggies. He could not be stopped. And, the Ole Miss line did stop any and all attempts of the farmer boys. This impressive victory wiped out all sorrows that might have been in the minds of Red and Blue followers. No Ole Miss student has witnessed before such a triumphant victory. This was the last game that Peebles, Jones, Kyzar, Boutwell, Payne, and Carter, will play for Ole Miss. Their services have been great to the Red and Blue squad, and they will be missed next year.

Freshman Football

The freshman football squad of this year was the best and most successful that Ole Miss has had in many seasons. During the past summer every effort was put forth in an attempt to secure good material for the Red and Blue teams, and this effort was rewarded. There is more potential varsity material in this frosh team than possibly any other in the Conference.

In the first game of the season, the Little Mississippi Flood won by the very one-sided score of 104 to 0. The loser was the ancient foe of all University teams, Mississippi Heights Academy. Most every player out for the team was put in at some time. What the score would have been, had the regular team been left in, would be a mere guess. Anyway, it would have been at least doubled.

The next game was with the Alabama freshman team. This was the only setback of the season. It was clearly evidenced by the playing in this game that the frosh had not mastered sufficiently the new Warner system. Ole Miss scored only once, when Casper ran across the goal line during the last quarter. The final score was 33 to 6.

Not discouraged by the loss of this last game, the Red and Blue freshmen lit into Southwestern with all of their fury. The Bobcats were outplayed in every quarter, and at no time did they threaten the little Mississippians. Casper, Stone, White, and Jones, Ole Miss starting backfield, gave the opposing line plenty of trouble. Casper showed up at his best in broken field runs. The entire Red and Blue line, both those who started and those who were substituting in their places, played jam-up football throughout the entire game.

The more it rained, the greater was the swell of the Little Mississippi Flood. When the whistle blew for the starting of the game, the name Little Mississippi Flood should have been changed to the Big Mississippi Deluge, for it proved that the freshman team had increased to a rolling undulating torrent, that completely drowned and washed away the Baby Tigers who had journeyed to the delta town with the thought, or ambition, to stem the flow of the Minor Flood. There was too much Casper, Swor, and White for the Bengals of L. S. U., so Ole Miss won to the tune of 12 to 0. Thus was the story of the Freshmen's Armistice Day program at Indianola.

The freshmen were exultant over their complete victory when they encountered the A. & M. freshman squad. The Aggie frosh scored early in the first quarter, but this was to be their lone counter, for not once during the remainder of the game did they even threaten the Ole Miss goal line. Again Casper and Swor were to be the stars of the day. It was a hard matter to be a star on that day, for it seemed that each member of the team was trying to outdo the feats of the other players. Jones seemed to be trying to equal the performance put on by Casper, for he did some mighty fast stepping through the Aggie defense on several occasions. Montgomery, Burke, Ferrill, in fact the whole team was on its toes the entire game. It was not necessarily the individual playing that carried the day for the Red and Blue team, but rather the cooperation and team work of the boys. The final score was 33 to 6, with the Ole Miss freshman team at the long end of the score.

Below are listed most of the outstanding freshman players that composed this year's team: Backfield, Stone, Smith, White, Burke, Jackson, Casper, Ruby, Jones, Burnett. In the line: Boswell, Swor, Parker, Montgomery, Reeder, Hayes, Flowers, Gill, Ferrill, Crowe, and Kisner.

BASEBALL SEASON 1930

Ole Miss waded into a very strenuous baseball schedule and emerged with a fairly successful record, having won twelve games and lost ten. Coach Pete Shields, with the material available, molded together a hustling team that could slug viciously.

After the first two games had been rained out, the Red and Blue opened the season by taking a 5 to 4 win from the Gophers of Minnesota. George "No Hit" Howell made his official debut on the mound. Ed Mabry shared the glory of the day by socking a triple with the bases full. Ole Miss took the next two games also by outslugging the Gophers 8 to 4 and 8 to 7. Tad Smith, in the eighth inning of the third, stole home for the winning run, but in doing so injured his shoulder. Minnesota took the last game of the series by virtue of a long home-run in the ninth.

Next came the University of Indiana squad for a five-game series. It was a week of wild hitting. Indiana won the first game in ten innings by some heavy clouting at the finish, in spite of Rube Wilcox's home run. Ole Miss claimed the next two, silencing the Hoosier big guns temporarily; but the last two games were divided in toe to toe swatting battles.

In splitting a two-game series with the Howard Bulldogs, George Boutwell muzzled them completely in the second encounter with his fancy twirling.

L. S. U. sent her Tigers up to inaugurate the conference schedule. This the Shieldmen did auspiciously by decisively winning the two games. Faulkner was the hero of the first tilt, when he socked in the winning run; and Ed Mabry the second day with his five hits.

The Vanderbilt Commodores sallied in next, dealing out woe and destruction with their thunderous broadsides, annexing the series 17 to 1 and 17 to 12. Too much Bull Brown!

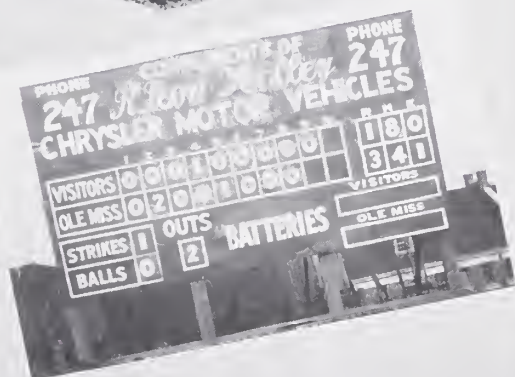

Down at Aggietown, A. & M. grabbed off the opener with George Boutwell on the mound for the Red and Blue, to the tune of 8 to 3. Next day Ole Miss evened things, 5 to 2.

Alabama won two hard games from the Flood, 6 to 4 and 9 to 3, at Columbus. Freddy Sington wielded the big mace for the Conference Champs.

Rallying in the ninth to tie, Boutwell hit the longest ball ever seen in the Georgia park, and Moore, pinch hitting, hit for the circuit, Ole Miss snatched the first game from Georgia, 7 to 6, in ten innings. The Bulldogs got the next battle, 4 to 3, in a pitchers' duel, with Harrison representing Ole Miss.

The grand final, with A. & M., was the most hair-raising series ever played on the Ole Miss diamond. Ole Miss won both games, but had to wade fire and brimstone to do so. The first was close, 3 to 1. Great support won for Big Richard Peeples, who was the Red and Blue moundsman.

The last day the tempest broke, with Harrison starting for Ole Miss. Ole Miss came from behind three times, tying in the ninth when the cause seemed lost. In the thirteenth inning Ole Miss' great little short-stop, Skeeter Webb, with two out and Tad on second, lined out to right to bring home the fleet Smith with a victory.

L. S. U. Meet

The first meet of the season was at Baton Rouge with Louisiana State University. Inexperienced because of not having practiced and timed themselves on a regulation quarter mile track, and because of having trained only three weeks, the Ole Miss squad lost with the very one-sided score of 95 to 13.

Colon Brown, for Ole Miss, won first place in the broad jump, and Baxter won first in the discus throw. Beverly Smith placed second in the high jump. The remaining places were won by L. S. U.

Southwestern Meet

The Red and Blue trackmen won this meet by a slight two-point margin. The contest was held in Memphis at Fargason Field. It was a fast meet, and at no time was there a certainty who was to be the winner. The doubt was not removed until the last two races were run, when Ole Miss emerged with a total count of 57 and Southwestern with 55. Biggers, for Ole Miss, won first place in the 440-yard dash, and 220 low hurdles. Baxter won first in the discus and shot put. Woodruff won first in the 100-yard dash; and Colon Brown won first in the 220-yard dash.

CHEER LEADERS

COSSAR AND CULLEY

The excellent showing of the cheering section this year is due to the untiring efforts of Head Cheer Leader George Payne Cossar and his highly efficient assistants, Virginia Cully and Tally Riddell. Much time, labor, and thought has been expended by these three in developing an organized cheering group. They were instrumental in keeping the enthusiasm of the freshmen up to the highest possible degree. The supreme accomplishment of this trio is the inauguration of the card system in the cheering section at Ole Miss. They have set a high mark for future cheer leaders. It is only hoped that they of later years will strive just as hard and accomplish just as much and realize their responsibilities in the same manner as these three. It is the purpose of this paragraph to try to show in a small degree the appreciation of the students for the work of these cheer leaders, who have given their best to help the Red and Blue teams. They have done their part towards the glories Ole Miss has received in athletic encounters. Likewise, they have helped the team in the dark hours of defeat. Our hats are off to them!

Captain Graeber started the season off with a bang and was a raging tornado in the opening games. The entire team truly felt the loss of this elongated center, always a threat to the opposing squad.

The team was very disappointed because they were not qualified to go to Atlanta to the Southern Conference Tournament because of not having played a sufficient number of conference games. L. S. U. called off two of her games due to the scarlet fever epidemic, and A. and M. failed to get together a team this year.

THE NEW REGIME

Athletics at Ole Miss are on the rise. Many years back the only real aim of a University team was to be good enough to lick A. & M. But, now, that has become a matter of habit, this winning over A. & M., and Ole Miss backers want, and demand, more from her teams. They desire teams that will compare favorably with the best in the Southern Conference, and a Conference Championship team is not above their hopes and expectations.

Thus, there has been a complete change up in the Ole Miss coaching staff. Coach Edward L. Walker has taken the place vacated by Homer Hazel, as Director of Athletics and Head Football Coach. He comes to Mississippi from Leland Stanford and Columbia Universities. In California he was coached under "Pop" Warner, one of America's most highly recognized mentors. It is the Warner System of football that Walker has introduced here.

Walker is ably assisted by Chuck Smalling, who also comes from the Pacific Coast. Smalling gained national reputation from his showing in the Leland Stanford-Army game of 1929. He acts as backfield coach and assistant coach in the other departments of sports at Ole Miss.

Kenneth Gatchell comes to us from A. & M., where he was All-Southern Basketball and Track star. He is to be coach of track and trainer during the football season.

Into the hands of Tadpole Smith goes the care of the freshman teams. Tad has made a splendid coach, as he is experienced, both in playing and coaching. Tad is assisted by Rube Wilcox in his work with the freshmen.

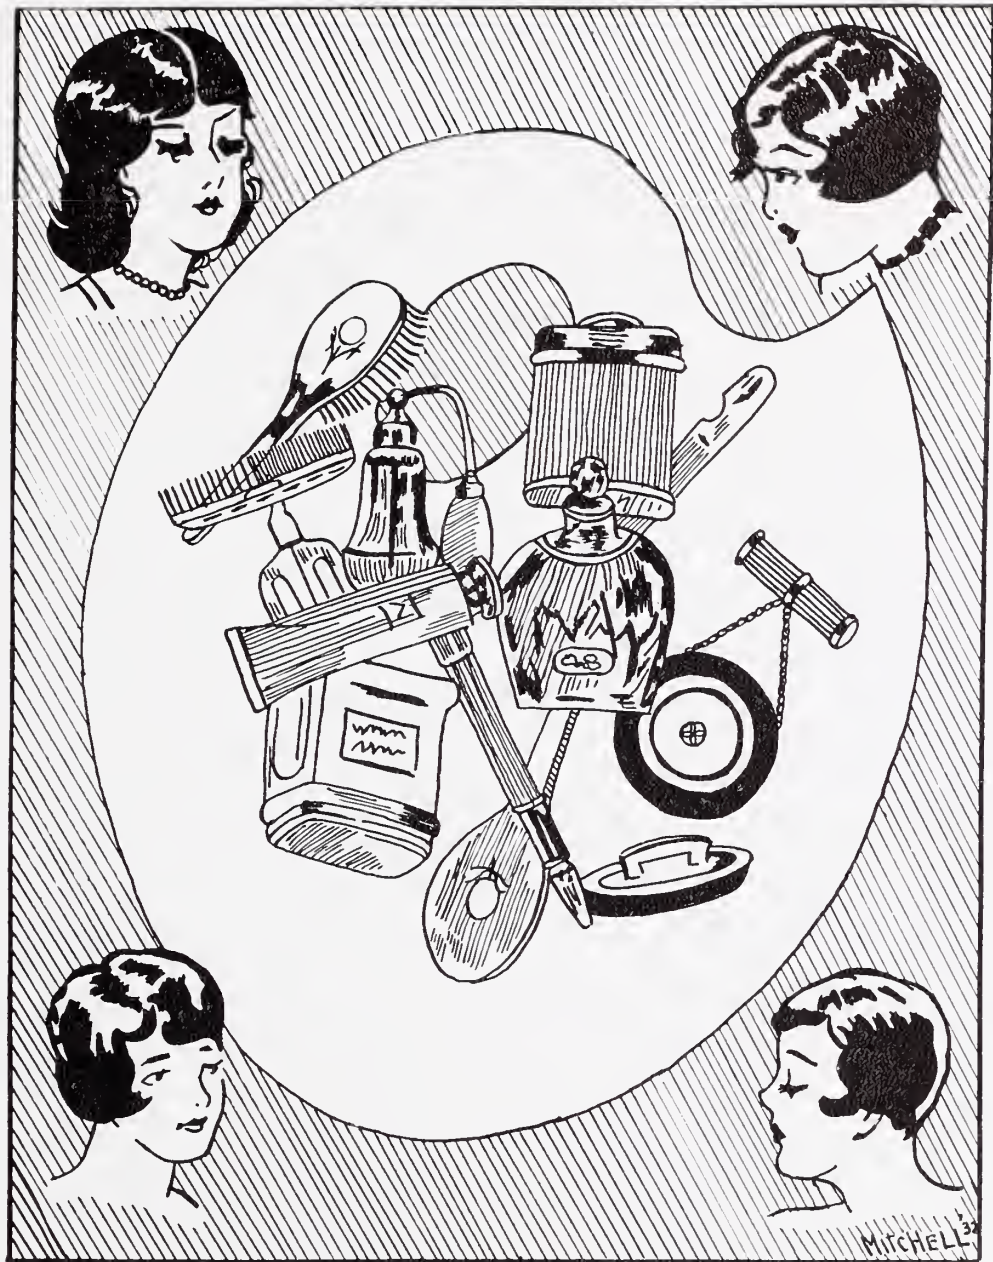

Miss Flanagan is again in charge of the girls' athletics. She is a very efficient and hard-working coach and director.

Every effort is being put forth in trying to secure for Ole Miss the best players in the state. Each year the State of Mississippi has stars in schools out of the state. The thought that is trying to be put across is that they can receive the same advantages within the state. This year we were very successful in securing good material for next year's varsity. This fact is best evidenced by noting the splendid showing of our freshmen teams in all of the encounters.

With this new coaching force, and the securing of good material, athletics at Ole Miss should rise to the highest peaks. It is realized that several years are necessary to build up a championship team, but that is the aim of the New Regime.

BEAUTY

THE third annual style show, already an Ole Miss tradition, was a scene of unusual beauty and grandeur, truly exemplifying the unsurpassed beauty of the old Magnolia State. Such poise, such beauty, such personality—entirely beyond expression of mere mortal! It is with pride that we acclaim and pay tribute to the Ole Miss queens of nineteen thirty-one.

The New Bared Manual

BETA THETA PI

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
If you can kick a football,
We'll take you.

The above poetical effusion may be taken as the rush motto of the greatest herd of bull-necked, cauliflower-eared, unkempt, coatless cattle that this institution has been pestered with in ten decades. Coach Walker's roll for football practice includes every Beta except Freshman "Goo-goo" Cox and the Publication Duo, "Puffy Jack" Ewing and "Four-eyes" Wheelless.

The chapter started off a big year by pledging the governor's nephew (bumping nobody at all), who turned out to be as big an error as the rest of them. Then more bad luck came at the end of the first semester, when the national office of Kappa Beta Phi called Y. M. C. A. Mellwain away, and the dock was left without a watch-dog. The B. S. O.'s and the Kappa Sigma Tau's promptly allied with them, forming the notable Ole "Mess" Triad. This combination has regular monthly get-togethers on the "Y" lawn, where they indulge in their favorite game, "Guinea, Guinea, Guinea, All Squat," led by Buford Rowland and Walker Turner, who are recognized as the best squatters in "these here parts."

The campus talk about fraternity houses caused them a little worry at first, but Manager P. (Publicity) Lawton promptly settled the difficulty by leasing the athletic field house. It was selected due to the fact that all would feel at home in it. When it wears out, a new home on a similar plan will be erected from the proceeds of the campus picture show. The architect will be Chic Sale, and the site will be directly behind the Fraternity Row.

The spirit of the notorious Satterfield still lives in the hearts of these hairy-chested hicks, and we hear of a Beta Theta Pee pledge boasting that they have "the best chapter on the campus." Of all preposterous lies to try to force down the throats of intelligent people, this stands out as the year's greatest. Or, maybe, it's the season's best joke. If it were the only chapter here, it couldn't be true, because people can still belong to Hermaean and Phi Sigma.

Dame Rumor has it that they are about to lose their charter. Should such good fortune attend the campus, it will remove a veritable worry wart from the back of fraternity progress. We commend the judgment of their national officers and suggest that the outlawed chapter form a local unit of W. O. W.

DELTA GAMMA

What can we say about them? We know very little this year, and any dope, good or bad, is exceedingly hard to locate. The dear little girls did not rush this year, "orders from headquarters," but that's all right, girls, we understand about those breakfast dates. Their pledges are innocent-looking little things—far too innocent for this wicked University (which one are we talking about? Oh, either will do). Several girls declare that there is no such sorority at the University, but we take this occasion to announce that there is—our proof: they were actually allowed to draw for a room in the Pan-Hellenic house.

Most of the girls in the chapter are sticking together in their search for oblivion. Hammond withdrew from presidency of the Student Government, Mary Lewis Reed didn't try for the beauty contest, not one of them voted in Who's Who contest, although we hear Crosby got a few votes for Perfect "34". No wonder, the length and looseness of her clothes very successfully hides her figure. She refuses to give up her social prestige and has advertisements run at the theatre—that's one way of acquiring publicity, Hot. There is one place they remain popular—with George Darnall. That's right, George, give the little girl a break. Never give up hope, anchors, you may have a "heart" among you yet. "Come be a Delta Gamma with the Alumni of Oxford."

KAPPA SIGMA

They are a brotherly little group. Such a hopeful little band believing in Santa Claus. It is rumored that, if they are real good, dear old Saint Nick will leave them some bricks and cement in their stockings next Christmas with which to build a playhouse, where they can hide some of their men during rush week. Not a luxury, just a real necessity.

Some say they are so open-minded, but, as yet, we find no minds. They add to the chapter coffers each week through the money made by Taxi Driver Smallwood—a small-town hick, trying to be a city slicker. Every one is so proud of little Bobbie. Even his folks have to trip over here every day or so to be sure that the family lamb is looking well. Such optimism! Tony Joe Nettles also adds a few pennies from the bananas that he peddles on the corner while grinding his organ with Monk Jackson. Their pride is Jack "Wind". His name may be Wind, but he's a bag of bad air to us. If you don't know him, you really have something to be thankful for. Anyway, they would like to have you avoid him—the prep school sweater flash.

Now that little Eddie White has gone, the reins of driving the horses has fallen on Roman Nose Love. Really not what his name implies, except to Mary Pat. This chapter boasts of every variety of horse there is, and Love is trying to drive them. Chicago Reed. Everyone tired of Reed's wit after his first week. Capone is calling you, Reed, so give us a break. Seventeen years from now they will still be standing in front of the mirror and patting themselves on the back, gloating over Anderson and McLeod. Why, oh, why? The pledge buttons bought for this year have been put aside for next year. They didn't quite come up to their usual thirty. They need White back to cry and beg and plead. Moral: Don't send so many on trips next year, boys.

THE OLE MISS, 1931

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Well, now, let's see, how many football players did A. T. O. pledge this year? Answer: how many men did they pledge? Tad Smith kills two birds with one stone when he goes scouting over the country for football recruits. His slogan: pledge A. T. O. and you'll make the football team. It's a fine idea for the ole frat, but, Tad, can't you see what a dirty trick you pulled on the freshmen, when they realize just what sort of an organization to which they have obligated themselves? Have a heart.

Oh, well, maybe next year things will turn out better, and, as for the present, there is Kinks Culley adding prestige to the "society" by strutting about in the tin lizzie with Miss Popularity. Your name will certainly go down in history, Ann, as one who made the supreme sacrifice for the sake of "Kinks" and his fraternity. Chubby Royce is a fine chap, also. His women give him no little trouble, however. His latest disappointment was when he called at his girl's (?) house, and instead of finding her at home, he found his pin waiting for him in a milk bottle on her front steps. Certainly original! Doc Monroe detracts very little from the herd. His "Monroe Doctrine" doesn't seem to have such force in Brother Milden's class. Then there is Billy Pyle, whose scare from the episode on University Avenue put him in the hospital with Scarlet Fever. Funny, what effect such things have.

There is one more man who belongs to this fraternity, but he requests that his name not appear in connection with it. No one could blame him for that—because—perhaps, it is best not to get strung out on what's the matter with them. Space in this column prohibits a full statement of facts in that respect.

DELTA PSI

"Here, we almost reach the sky,
When we think about grand Delta Psi,
Just nine chapters, but, oh, my!
To a menagerie they are almost nigh.
As they walk along with their heads
so high,
And their chests thrown out we almost sigh,
To bump them is as easy as pie,
When little Jim Voller passes by,
We look at him and wonder why.
Exclusiveness and secrecy, they always cry,
Because they are most as good as Phi
Pi Phi."
(Apologies to Phi Pi Phi.)

PI KAPPA PHI

Kossuth, Enid, Fulton, Saltillo, Vardaman, Waynesboro, Ellisville—just some of the home towns of these slickers, which will help in judging their rating. What more could you expect from them, after having been checked to such a slow speed all of their lives? It is with pride that they point out the two "city" boys in their clutches, both from Meridian.

Right justly they should be proud of their own Lloyd Crawford "Buck" Alexander, because he is, in his estimation, the pride of the Delta. People on the campus have come to realize that he is not to be taken seriously.

Bill Inzer of famed Pontotoc County??? is their representative in the school of law. He will make as good a lawyer as Blind Jim would make a golf player. They both would be shooting in the dark. Their political stock went down considerably with the passage of John Edwards, sly puller of many a coup in this ward.

The P. K. P.'s reached their zenith in the social world this year, in the revealing of the secret marriage of Jimmy Taylor to Marie Aubert of Kappa Sigma Tau fame. Many a heart was cast into darkness at such sudden elimination of this dashing Romeo from the field of conquests. However, it was their only newspaper recognition, and it was only then because it is customary for the papers to give the name of the fraternity on such occasions.

We have taken up entirely too much space with them already, and there is nothing good that can be said, anyway, since John May went to the dogs.

WORKING ON HER Ph.D.

THE OLE MISS, 1931

DELTA ZETA

The chief reason for the electric current growing dim at the University Theatre is because the Delta Zetas are using all current possible to help them in their search through dark corners for the little grains of knowledge they so desire. They rushed this year, for the most part in and out the dormitory, only to find to their great sorrow that knowledge is not what most girls come here for. They bagged three in the contest only to lose one just after Xmas; she, lured by the bright lights (and others, mostly others), withdrew from their ranks.

Who would ever have thought that dear self-made Mae Farlane would ever stoop and join the order of Quillers—but then, Catherine, M.A. work is a little hard and Dr. Pochman did need a cat. These girls have been so well-trained from freshman-hood in the art of study that when Trull captured a steady, she sees him nightly in the library to study together—too romantic for words—far too romantic for Delta Zeta. Corrie Dennis only a pledge but backed by the chapter, acquires dates for all the dances and has added much prestige to the chapter by being seen with a Phi Delta Theta. They gave a dance at the Robert E. Lee and it was quite a success—there were almost no Delta Zetas there. We hear that Pettyjohn, yes, our own little Pettyjohn, was the belle of the ball. The female lawyer of the University and her faculty prominence also add prestige to Delta Zeta.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Everyone, even in charity, should give them a glance. Whoever thought of giving this group the name of a fraternity? As goes the old theorem, things equal to the same thing are equal to each other. Pi Kappa Alpha is nothing, the boys here are nothing, so therefore, this group is nothing. They have earnestly tried, but all to no avail. They have only succeeded in getting into the coop and into the papers.

However, they have some known celebrities, or should they be called that?—no. They boast of the old stam in school, the scheming, political, shining Father Time Fortenberry; and they go into the limelight through the braying of the other—Fortenberry, the fair mouthpiece of student opinion. Since Pi K. A. couldn't possibly build a house, he brayed out the student opinion, that houses should not be built. We didn't think it was possible to have two such simple, idiotic fools in one place, but here they are. Can't some kind soul or plague rid us of these two varmin'ts?

Everybody knows, except Minnie and Gerald that he is not God's Gift to Women. Poor little Gerald, he was an innocent victim of those awful Ole Miss politics! Mikey may claim that he left school to escape Gin Culley, but he really left to escape this band of "deaf brothers". And that conceited arrogant, persistent Itch, Ramsey Russell. In closing, let us recommend for mange cure, Skeeter Anderson, whom even Tom and Spiero point out as the tightest wad in this vicinity. How can a man built on such a large scale be so tight?

This picture is pretty poorly painted; they are not this bad, being probably worse.

CHI OMEGA

"I am going to join the Chi Omega," one little girl was heard to say before Chi Omega had a chance to start rushing, because it was her first hour on the campus. Such fame must be deserved, and they are really well-known. No doubt about that—and so exclusive. They take only the best girls and only one type. This year they pledged only eighteen girls on the principle that if they couldn't get them in number, they could at least get them in size. They have such a hard time of it, poor dears, but to hear them tell it—"It is just so easy if you just know how." Will this University ever stop following Blind Jim?

Won't Saunder's ever come out of the fog? Even when Dick Daugherty says he isn't home to talk to her, she still calls him every night at eleven. Even had a private phone put in. Atkinson must have her music, so she acquired a radio from somewhere, and Isom Hall wishes it was in—somewhere. Million almost got a break in the Popularity Contest. She almost won out on the Perfect—34?. What shall we do—or what can we do? The best of friends must part. Our own little Ruthie and Mabel Coleman of K. D. fame have to go to battle for the attention of Mr. Horting. To the victor belongs the spoils, and may the best man—pardon—girl win. Last and not least, Tennie Clark, who promised after a long, hard night of the regulation rushing, that will break the resistance of a horse. No wonder the poor child had to go Chi Omega. We wonder where the whole bunch got the wonderful opinion of themselves that they have.

PHI DELTA THETA

This superb conglomeration of monstrosities added another excellent group of non-entities to their already numerous herd by means of their traditional tuxedo method. A special exception was made in the case of Mims Wright, to whom they furnished a straight jacket, on the front of which was neatly attached the national emblem of this incoherent mass of yahoos.

The severe business depression has caused the abandonment of the old tuxedo method of rushing.

(CENSORED)

and for it has been substituted a less expensive one, by which any member of the student body who can be humbugged, hoaxed, or bamboozled into affiliating with this pusillanimous and feeble-minded group will be plastered with the above-mentioned national emblem set in jewels. The general public can easily see the magnetic influence which such an underhanded method will exert on innocent and sub-normal freshmen. Primitive and undeveloped animals throughout history have always had a natural inclination for the possession of worthless trinkets.

THE OLE MISS, 1931

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Tri Delta still has the habit of teaching all of their pledges the political game. The first thing they do after the pledging ceremony is to have a mock election and teach them their favorite tricks. By this method they are sure of the most prominent places in the campus elections. But—Tri Doodle rushing—this year they fought their best friends, used every political trick imaginable, pulled the wool over their own eyes, and kept the left hand in ignorance of what their right hand was doing, just to get the same number, or maybe more girls than any other sorority. Oh! Quality!

There has been quite a bit of controversy over the length and strength of Chee Wee Mayers' line, but now there is very little doubt in anyone's mind that her line is the longest and strongest on the campus. She always gets at least one date with any man she goes out for—and some of them are fools enough to go back again.

Why! Oh! Why! did our dear Carmen Smith have to go home? We can't imagine a dance without her—and the thought of any program in the chapel without her is simply unbearable, even though she did try to fall down in the midst of her lovely "Spanish" dance.

We wonder why Martha Lightcap got it this year for perfect "34", and why she didn't get it last year, and why she didn't get it for the Biggest Flirt again? She is so deserving—especially in her own opinion.

S. A. E. (Salvation Army Employees)

This little(?) group deserves special mention because of the many recent additions it has made to the Salvation Army. This latter worthy organization has of late put on a program to enlist new workers to its cause, and realizing the INEXCLUSIVENESS of the s.a.e.s it has consummated a most extraordinary arrangement with the aforementioned "nation". All s.a.e.s are hereafter to be "ipso facto" members of the Salvation Army. Furthermore, they are to be paid by the central office of the Salvation Army 1c per head for all men contributed towards the cause. Of course, we wouldn't insinuate that this little(?) group was influenced by the monetary provisions of the contract, but it has been rumored that they expect to receive enough out of this 1c clause the first year to construct a $100,000 house. In order to meet the requirements of the n.w. contract, the chapter method of balloting had to be rearranged. Formerly, this lodge maintained the rigid(?) requirement that all rushees had to have at least 40 per cent of the chapter voting in their favor (in unusual cases it was lowered to 30 per cent). Under the new arrangement the antiquated percentage basis has been removed, and anyone will be eligible who can be persuaded, fooled, kidnapped, or hood-winked into enlisting. We again desire to emphasize that we are sure that the 1c clause had nothing to do with the reorganization. By way of conclusion, we wish to call attention to the excellent record(?) this lodge has had in keeping down dissension and friction among its members.

DELTA TAU DELTA

The harmless boys who seek the reputation of being the campus' worst drinkers and hell raisers. Not content with the usual disgusting antics of "Worry Wart" Collins, the eternally griping member of the chapter, they pledged the pride of Yazoo City, Bill Noblin, and initiated him to boot. Stovall, where was Stovall? That is the question and easy it is to answer. Stovall, who was formerly Delta Tau Delta, in toto, was smitten by the charms of brunette Lil, and it is said that he wore three inches of chin from his face by rubbing it on the window sill of the hospital while brunette Lil was confined with scarlet fever. And still Stovall has shin to spare. Their rushing season was very interesting, and the way Stovall worked over-time on Freshman "Collegiate" Graves would seem that some other lodge on the campus would have taken him, and all to no avail since the pledge is lonesome and is to transfer next year. Good riddance. And now the end is come. Stovall is to finish this year, and, with Collins as head of the chapter next year, great things are being planned, and things are to be done in Collins' BIG WAY. He will in all probability use the new gym for his fraternity house, since he seems to have taken it over anyhow. Ad infinitum, ad naseum.

KAPPA DELTA

Kappa Doodle seems to have lost the sisterly feeling for DEKE that she used to be so proud of. We wonder why? Could it be rivalry between them over the cup that was finally and graciously given to Sigma Chi?

Some of the other sororities have been kicking because K. D. seems to have a monopoly on all the good dark corners. Give them a break, girls.

We wonder what causes them to stumble into the wrong room, fall up the stairs, scream and giggle, until the whole coop is ready to drown them in a tub of cold water? We have heard that they have adopted a new theme song—and how appropriate—The Wobbly Walk.

Poor Mabel—we would do anything in our power to help you, because we hate to see you pay all that money for matriculation, and get nothing in return for it—not even notice. Speaking of NOTICE—that is what Mahon gets when she is on the dance floor. There has been entirely too much speculation so, Mary Walker, it would be best for you to give us an explanation of how you manage to play the contortionist and attempt to dance at the same time, or stop knocking everyone else off the floor.

(CENSORED)

Wake up, Duke, you are not still in high school.

THE OLE MISS, 1931

DELTA KAPPA EPSILON

With their backs to the wall, they await the end, and drown their secret sorrows in the sweeping flood. Even their best friends felt sorry for them during rush week, and secretly helped those that couldn't help themselves. Are we really talking about one of the Big Ten? Hell, no! just Chi Chapter of D. K. E. Really, there is such a fraternity on the campus, gentle readers. What a sad blow such an ending must be to their illustrious founders, Westbrook and Dunn.

Since Junius Slaughter decided the atmosphere in this vicinity didn't suit him and left, the reins of control have fallen into the capable hands of one Yeager Moss. One with his shining abilities just couldn't be overlooked even among such shining lights. Such a glow as this is rivaled only by his contemporary, D. Collins. We hear that there has been quite a bit of dissension in the chapter since Fugate threatened to turn in his pin if "Stud" McGregor was not pledged. Well, who could blame him—or the chapter either?

With the withdrawal of Cheatham and Phillips, their social rating went to nil, but with Leonard and Abbay still here, no need to worry, girls. The burning of Mack's Cafe occasioned quite a bit of excitement in their midst, and such a bit of heroism as these brothers did display, trying to get that ancient heirloom of a charter out of the flames. But, then, where would another have come from? You know a drowning man will grab at straws. It is with deep regret and a sigh that we leave them to their fatal end.

KAPPA SIGMA TAU

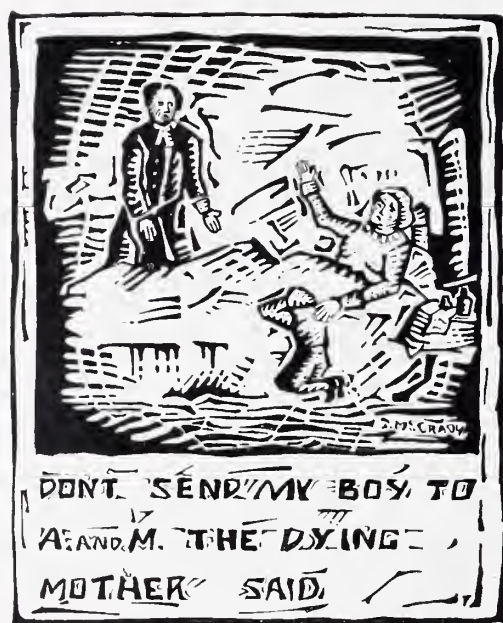

How does one go about gathering dope on a sorority that one knows absolutely nothing about and rarely ever hears of? One thing we do know is that they are still pushing what talent they have, as everyone remembers the black and red creation in the Style Show worn by Our Lady Boots—and how she wore it. The girls seem to be a little better off this year. Several of them have had dates. We don't know what they are coming to.

Taylor adds prestige to the chapter by wearing a pin of one of the most outstanding (?) fraternities on the campus. Frances Hunt's only contribution so far has been that she is president of Pan-Hellenic. We wondered how she managed it until someone was kind enough to tell us that this was the year for K. S. T. to have the head of the Pan-Hellenic, and she happened to be president of that social body.

We conclude this sketch, still wondering how one goes about gathering dope on sororities that one knows absolutely nothing about and rarely ever hears of.

PHI KAPPA PSI

How these boys have stepped up the ladder this year, but where does that ladder lead? The dear little A. D. M.'s of the past have "suddenly" become the important Phi Psis, but, pardon us, we haven't quite placed that yet. The leopard can't change his spots, neither can these, and so, we are still blessed by having these real he-men in our midst. And yet some say the school has gone down! Oh, my, my!

Ole Miss social life was raised to unheard of heights by their grand installation ceremonies. Ah, but that little tea was a darling and the dance following—just beyond expression. You can't fool us by that tea, Pryor. Anything that you and Webbie are connected with is going to be a rip-snorter, and most probably end in a brawl. Tea—my eye.

Our hearts are filled with sympathy, and we cannot but find admiration for such men as can carry on in the face of such disaster as the loss of Abright and Miller—called away on urgent business. Yet, they have cute little Ed Zwingle, the most popular boy on the campus, and Pryor's antics in the Inter-fraternity Council means a lot.

Did this group write that song, "All Alone"? Yet, it couldn't have been them, since Tri Delta knows they are the best yet, evidenced by Margaret's car with Zoe's presence any day in the week.

But carry on, boys, we know you mean well, and as long as there are more of the Klotz family in the fold, you will be all right. Only discard that brutish attitude.

S. P. E.

John Clark Love—God's gift to himself.
George Darnall—He lives, he breathes, yet he is all mouth.
John Caughman—Mahon's last chance.
Rating—Nil minus.

THE OLE MISS, 1931

PHI PI PHI

Just what this name stands for or what it really is, we don't know, so pardon any mistakes we may make concerning Pi Phi Pi—that's wrong—so maybe we had better call them the three P's. Some say this a fraternity, others say it is an amalgamation of "would be's" (not three peas). Personally, we think it is a form of assimilation.

Judge Coleman, politician de lux, tried to make his getaway, but, fortunately, he was put on the spot by scarlet fever and Oxford bootleggers—more the shame. Riddell and Whitney just can't forego the idea that the gym is for acrobatics even when a dance is in progress. They must have their workout, we suppose. We wonder what they fed little "riddell" to change him into such a conundrum so quickly. At least, he knows he is the biggest thing up here. At last, Mitchell pinned Taylor through patriotism certainly, after being convinced that the chapter really needed publicity in the "Coop". Publicity—and how!

Just where Davis got the idea that he is a legislator, we don't know. At least, he could bray with the rest of them, but, possibly, we are overstating his forensic abilities.

We can't possibly pass over the sweetest romance of the year, Brightberry Brown and little Betty Colbert. What joy it is to find that such a pure romance still exists, even in such an evil ole' world.

What's the use of proclaiming such virtues? Actions speak louder than words and, oh, such actions! Say, Wilroy, should we have mentioned you here? Pardon us!

PHI MU

The Phi Mus—yes, believe it or not—one does find such a thing in the Greek alphabet. Yet to the students of our Alma Mater the Alpha Delta chapter of such a sorority is familiarly and dearly known as the FIVE MILES—due to the shrink a number of their members—cause for shrinkage unknown(?)! and we should hesitate to add anything further here.

They are to be congratulated on succeeding in pledging a dozen or so, whom nobody else was rushing, after a strenuous week's work done by imported rushers. They are to be admired for their tact and political strategy—or "won't you have a cigar or a coca-cola— and have you seen the Phi Mu ticket for the Who's Who?" Well, all's fair in love and war they say. Is this WAR? They do boast the honor of having Miss Ole Miss in their genial midst—but this lass is not bringing them the prestige that they had hoped for. And she is such a good dancer?!?

Well, such few members do supply meagre material, so read on, others will afford more interesting, significant, and worthwhile facts.

KAPPA ALPHA

Why can't the national offices of both divisions of this fraternity realize that the Civil War is over? We do not blame either group, though, for not wanting to be combined with the other. Usually in a combining process, either one or the other is trying to raise their rating, and both K. A. Southern and K. A. Northern are nearly scraping bottom, as far as national standing goes.

Just as Delta Tau Delta has their Stovall and Collins, K. A. has their Thompson and McLean. What would these lodges do without these two? And Shrimp graduates this year.

The first day of rush week, High Pressure Thompson arose with the sun, and found that K. A. had twelve men pledged (as a result of summer rushing); but by nightfall, he found that only six of them were still pledged. Only because no other fraternity offered these remaining six a bid, were they left. It is a pity, for the sake of these six, that some other fraternity of at least the rating of S. P. E., Pi Kappa Phi, or Delta Tau Delta, did not lower their requirements and take them in.

Thompson begged us not to put anything in this publication about his being in love with a certain Chi Omega, or reveal the fact that she, in reality, does not love him. Because he has asked us not to, we will not expose him. It is a shame though that such a promising young "would-be" lawyer will neglect his work to the degree he does, just to satisfy the capricious fancy of womanhood—for big, bad, and many, men.

This is enough for the Knights of Alcohol.

SIGMA CHI

Never, since that lean and futile rush week back in 1926, when this order of amalgamated transfers and special students managed and connived to the extent of pledging Skinner and Crosby, has it been so completely without glory. Last year the burden of sponsoring and contriving this hopless aggregation rested upon the broad and competent shoulders of the incomparable Pleasants. Now that Pleasants has gone along with his Chi Omega influence they are blundering along with "Dr." lp Berry guiding their destinies with no great amount of confidence. Skinner was impeached and removed from the regal surroundings he occupied for three months because of his failure to acquire but 238 out of the possible 240 minus points on his scholarship average.

For the fifth consecutive year they were winners of the loving cup offered by the International Drinkers' Association to the group showing the most ability. They are now entitled to permanent possession of the reward, for their long, continued, and notorious use of the non-Volstead beverages. It was very appropriately said by the representative of the association when presenting this cup to Hoa, Ford Colbert, "You men have shown unusual and startling ability in getting drunk less, but staying drunk longer, than any group we have yet had to enter our contests." Mr. Colbert received the cup for his delinquent brother, Mr. Parsons, who didn't know the contest had ended.

SIGMA NU

Of all the incandescent, illuminating phosphorescent, glittering trouser-polishing pants-shining, collections of human constellations we have ever had the misfortune to be acquainted with, this Sigma Nu assembly takes the foremost place. It is generally understood that their type of shining is a national policy, a proof of which is the adoption of the tail-light as the standard national emblem.

Candidly, we know of no kind of shining in which they do not excel. The more noticeable instances that have come to our attention are Cliff Tynes with his acrobatic performances at the gym dances, and the activities of Jim Coleman. Both of these latter named gentlemen hold world records in scholarship, each having stayed in the University for nine semesters without making a fraternity average. However their attainment is hardly less important than that of the whole chapter. It has passed four consecutive years without making grades enough to be able to initiate.

Proceeding with the instances of organized shining, we may list Editor Brown's appointment of eleven Sigma Nu's to his Who's Who contest. A slight difficulty arose when Foxy Arrington wanted to be king of the Mardi Gras ball, but seniority prevailed and he had to be content with the Best Boy Dancer, while Sam Guess was named Most (?) Popular.

However, so far as a fraternity house is concerned, they seem to be pretty well fixed through their boasted adunus, Chic Sale. He has agreed to construct one of his masterpieces which will doubtless be quite appropriate for this chapter. Everybody knows the kind of houses Chic Sale builds.

Each year the process of teaching the new pledges to wear shoes is accomplished during Rush Week; this year they got one who already knew how, but Jim Vollar promptly took him, and only after ten dollars' worth of long distance calling did the Country Brigade him back.

It is generally admitted that they have the best organization of non-fraternity men on the campus.

Campus Celebrities

Skeeter Anderson and Bob Smallwood—the Gold Dust twins—members of the firm of Friskum & Cheatham. Money loaned at 60%. Phone 51. Open day and night. On week-ends, call — Hotel, Memphis.

"Banker" Gaines—Does things, everything, in a big way. The man whose generosity made Ole Miss dances a success. Connoisseur and sampler de luxe. Always at your service as "just one of the boys."

Chi Omega and Phi Mu—Whose self-sacrificing love for each other is a thing ethereal.

Eugene Thompson—Salesman Sam. Just another big shot from Millsaps who has finally taught us how to do things in a big way. Rah, rah, rah! Page Teeny, please.

Gerald Chatham—Truly God's gift to women, elected, according to him, on merit only. Barrister, orator, nightwatchman, and whatnot. Mainly whatnot. Truly a versatile man and so deserving, quite a popular figure in West Point.

Mary Walker Mahon—Weird, unusual, unique and so unaffected. The center of attention on any dance floor due to her unusual graceful ss. Truly the answer to a chiropractor's prayer.

Catherine McFarlane—Prodigy extraordinary. Assistant to Mrs. Duncan and deeply beloved by the entire "Coop." Rapidly becoming an Ole Miss tradition.

Jim Vollar and Jimmy Coleman—Chief contestants for the title of Perfect "34," with Vollar winning by a flannel shirt.

Cary Stovall—The chinless wonder. Ex-president of the A. S. B. and chief cohort of D. Collins. Constant portrayer of the mother and little boy scene with his beautiful lil. With a smile on his face, he holds her hand and slips down into obscurity. Such devotion! Ah!

Tom and Spiero—Courtesy and service, our specialty. We appreciate your business. Constantly playing Santa Claus to Ole Miss students. Just another form of the itch that you can't get rid of.

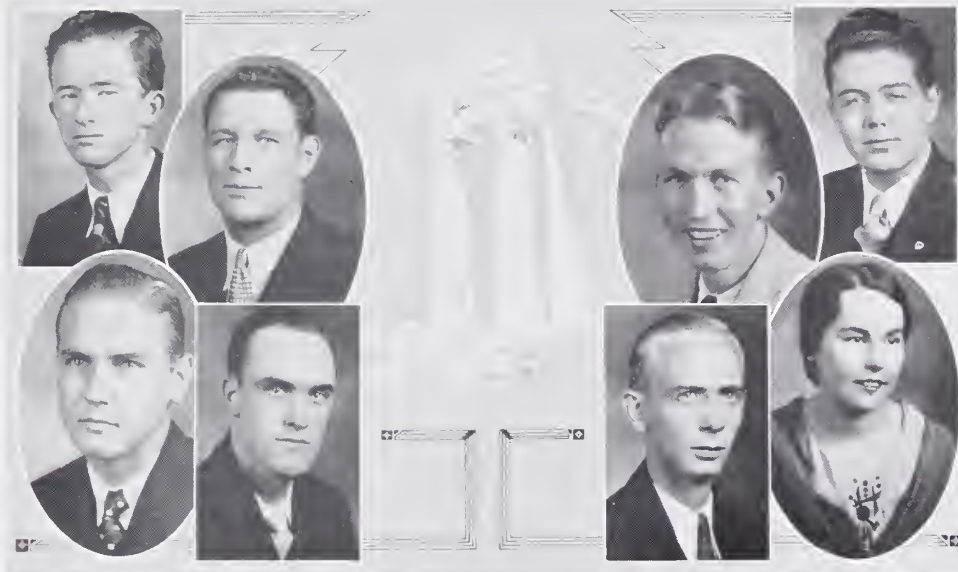

Nolan Fortenberry—Supposedly editor of the "Mississippian" and mouthpiece of the student body. In reality, just an outlet with the stopper gone for the men behind the throne. Strong upholder of fair elections, hair-cutting, and new fraternity houses.

Richard Clark Daugherty—Newest recruit to the ranks of the never-ending Saunder's Club. Barksdale, Swango, Simmons, and now our own "Static." "And he learned about women from her."

George Payne Cossar—Familiarly known in Memphis as "Blendy." Activities man extraordinary. Cupid himself, being certain that no girl is overlooked. Just a small-town boy who has made good.

Ford Colbert—Famed monitor of dear ole Yarbaman Hall. At last he has succumbed to the charm of the fairer sex. As Capps says, "Won't someone please call Ford?" Oh, Monitor, what is the source of such power?

A Visionary College Day

Dearest Mother:

Such a glorious day as this has been, dedicated to the wonderful cause of education. As usual, I arose with the sun, shaved, and hurriedly reviewed the subjects so carefully prepared the night before, then off to Gordon Hall. You know I just can't miss such splendid meals as we get there, even though I have to sacrifice a few minutes of study to eat.

Did I make my classmates sit up and look in class today! As usual, I was the star of the class. Oh, dear me, time passes so fast in Dr. Shaw's class. I could hardly believe the hour was up when the bell rang.

This afternoon was a real treat to me. Some of the boys fussed because they had to miss Clara Bow's new picture. How could they prefer a picture show to Chemistry Lab?

I have already prepared all my lessons tonight for tomorrow, and am now writing my usual letter home. Gee whiz, Mother, it is nine o'clock now. I must close and jump in bed. Always get in bed by nine so as to be in good condition the next day. Gee, but this is a wonderful place!

Your affectionate son,

JOHN COLLEGIATE.

A Real College Day

Leisurely arising at ten, after cutting two classes, in a frenzied burst of speed, John actually makes one at 10:30, much to the surprise of all concerned. Still half asleep he wonders if that old fogey will never get through. What is he talking about anyhow? At last the bell is ringing, and another hard day's classes are over.

On his way to breakfast at the cafe he suddenly opens his eyes. Oh, boy, what a pip! Look at those lines, just like a new sport roadster!

"Hello, Baby, what ya doing tonight? O. K., Honey, see you at eight."

"Boy, what a moon! Just right for you and me. Aw, say, c'mon now. Don't be a sissy. Ah, that's much better. You know, I liked you from the start, and can I pick 'em! Well, I'll say. Goodnight, Honey, see you in the morning."

"C'mon, babies, talk to Poppa. Now, who said that?" Roll, roll, roll.

"Aw, hell! Say, Buck, loan me ten, and I am going to clean this crew out."

Roll, roll, roll.

And so on into the night.

"For the sake of Auld Lang Syne"

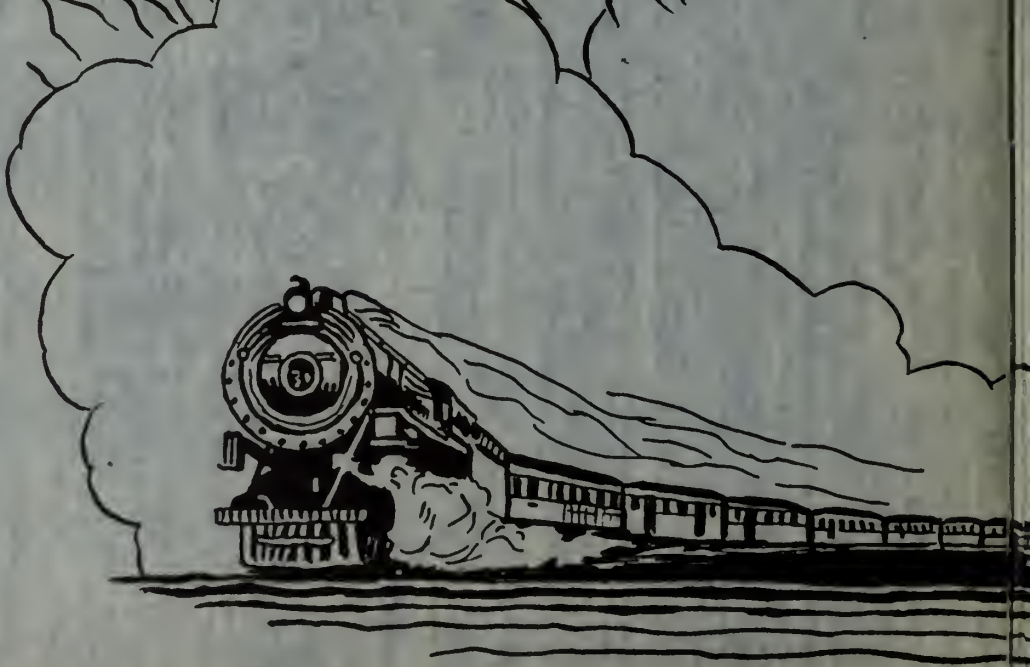

This page is cheerfully dedicated to those "knockers" who pretend to know so much about things of which they know so little.

"A child is born in the neighborhood; the attending physician gets $10, the editor gives the loud-mouthed baby and the happy parents a send-off and gets $0. When it is christened, the minister gets $10; the editor gets $00. It grows up and marries. The editor publishes another long-winded article and tells a dozen lies about the beautiful and accomplished bride. The minister gets $10 and a piece of cake and the editor gets $000. In the course of time it dies. The doctor gets from $25 to $100, the editor publishes a notice of the death and obituary two columns long, lodge and society resolutions, a lot of poetry and a free card of thanks and gets $0000. No wonder so many editors are rich."

Pity the poor editor. He may have treasures in Heaven.
